

Restaurants Care®

1. Spread the word!

(Hint: take this to your pre-shift!)

Q. Did you know there's a program that provides help to CA foodservice workers?

A. Restaurants Care® is a free relief fund for foodservice workers facing an unforeseen hardship. If you are ill, in a natural disaster or accident, or experienced a personal challenge from mental health to substance abuse, you may apply for financial assistance from Restaurants Care. It is a safety net in a time of crisis.

♥ How it works

Eligible foodservice workers receive grants to help cover basic living expenses like: rent, food and utilities.

♥ Eligibility basics

1. Live in California
2. Experienced a life-altering event
3. Work in foodservice in CA at time of crisis

♥ How to get help

The application is simple. Apply online at restaurantscare.org

2. Help us help more people.

- Talk about us (most people don't like it when you talk about them, but we do! Help more foodservice workers by talking about our program)
- Refer a restaurant worker in need
- Hang our back-of-house poster in the kitchen or on a bulletin
- Follow us on social. IG: @restaurants_care or FB: @restaurantscare
- Donate at calrestfoundation.org/restaurantscare (any amount is welcome!)
- Involved in an event, festival, or tasting? Tell the organizer that you'd like Restaurants Care to be the charitable beneficiary
 - Host an event at your restaurant
 - Ask your guests to chip in with a round-up or donate option
 - Donate a portion of a menu item
 - Donate a portion of total sales for a day, week, or month!
